Gentlemen,

We take pleasure herewith to enclose a letter from Mr. E. L. Weeks giving guarantee not to reproduce the painting you were pleased to buy of his, and we trust his letter may prove satisfactory to you.

Dear Mr. Knudsen.

Since you have
sold my picture,
"Departure for the Hunt, (with cheetahs)" at Futteh pore Sikri" to the Corcoran Gallery of Art.
I can have no hesitation in agreeing to their suggestion, - that is - I will not reproduce the same subject
and composition, there
represented.
I suppose, however -

that I may produce
other works, in which the architecture may be similar as I have many studies of that character - or that I may even introduce
elephants or cheetahs,
provided that such
works do not resemble
their picture, so far as to be considered
replicas or repetitions - of it. Aside from the imitation, I should hardly care, under any circumstances, to
paint the same
picture twice -

and I consider their selection as such an honor to myself. That I take pleasure in studying such their work -

Very sincerely yours -

L. L. Weeks -

Mr. Ingham - Nov. 13th 84

My Dear Sir -

You mentioned, while at my home in Washington, that the board of managers of the Corcoran Gallery would hold a meeting in Nov. I forget the date.

I should like to send a picture on for their inspection and for exhibition for a short time in the gallery. I would send the picture of the two german girls which both you and Mr. Kaufman admired.

If I am too late for the meeting this month, please let

we know when the next-meeting will be called.

I am pleasantly settled here and have several pictures under way.

I have three pictures at the Academy of Design, two of which are hung directly upon the line. I also have two very large pictures hung well at the Art Association Exhibition
now open. I should prefer sending <sup>the</sup> picture next month.

Please let all business
we may have be transacted directly by letter.

Hoping to hear soon from you I am yours kindly

Wm V. Birney.
